

Wanted to be Heard From!

If there is an invalid woman, suffering from female weakness, proflapsus, or falling of womb, or from leucorrhoea who has used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription without complete success, the undersigned proprietors and makers of that world-famed medicine would like to hear from such person—and it will be to her advantage to write them as they offer, in perfect good faith, a reward of $500 for any case of the above maladies which they can not cure.

$3,000 FORTUIT will also be paid if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Massachusetts woman, Mrs. Carrie P. Hunsford, of No. 615 State Street, Beverly, Mass., who is well known as the "Favorite Prescription" girl, writes her experience as follows: "Your Favorite Prescription is without a doubt, the finest remedy on the market today, for female difficulties. I suffered for four years with pain every period, and I dreaded the approach of the time as I have it now. I tried every medicine, but several different physicians advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and I purchased a package. I found that the real value of your medicine was greater than my expectations, and the next month I had hardly any pain. The following month had none at all, and found that my general health was much better and new life and strength had come to me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 100 large pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Ida M. Snyder, of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. "If I would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McCreary's Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Drugs, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures nervousness, depression, frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to homes that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

TURNED DOWN PROTEST OF WRONGED GIRL'S FATHER.

Gov. Beckham Turned Loose Eva Jackson's Seducer at the Request of Political Friends and Supporters.

PARDON RECORD IN THE CASE OF THOMAS H. GREENWADE.

Shows That the Request of John "Akeman" for Joe Raleigh's Pardon was Used as an Afterthought in Defense.

ENTERTAINED IN HOTEL WHILE POLITICIANS SOUGHT EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 5.—Gov. Beckham has sought to defend his action in pardon on the request of the father of the girl whom Raleigh brutally killed for resisting insulting proposals. That this is purely an afterthought is evident from the fact that he took exactly opposite action in the case of Thomas H. Greenwade, Jr., of Montgomery county. In this case the father of the girl made a strong protest against the pardon, but it was granted all the same at the request of Gov. Beckham's political agents and supporters.

Greenwade was tried at the April, 1901, term of the Montgomery Circuit Court, and sentenced to serve one year in the penitentiary for the seduction of Miss Eva Jackson under a promise of marriage. The trial of young Greenwade, who was a well known young man, created a stir in Central Kentucky, and when he was given the alternative of marrying the girl who charged him with being the father of her child or going to the penitentiary, he said that he would go to prison.

A NEW WRINKLE IN FRANKFORT. When he was brought to Frankfort to be imprisoned, a number of Montgomery county politicians accompanied him and he was entertained in the lobby of the Capital Hotel while the politicians conferred with Gov. Beckham about pardoning him.

The entertaining of a convict in the hotel while appeals were made for clemency was a new wrinkle Frankfort and attracted much comment. Nothing was done at the time, however and the young man was committed to the penitentiary.

On July 11 following, Gov. Beckham pardoned Greenwade, writing the following indorsement upon the pardon:

"The Circuit Judge, the Commonwealth's Attorney and nine of the jury and other good citizens request the pardon of this young man. Circumstances in the case show reasons justifying clemency. The pardon is, therefore granted."

The letters filed with the record do not show that there was any question of Greenwade's guilt, and the only reason given by the letter writers are that the family of the convicted deserved sympathy, as they were humiliated by his misfortunes.

One of the letters is from Judge John F. Cooper, who, on personal and political grounds, counseled the pardon of Goodloe Combs, convicted as an accessory before the fact to the assassination of John A. Rose. Another is from William Young, a brother of Allie W. Young, who nominated Gov. Beckham to succeed himself. There is also in the record the petition of nine jurors asking a pardon for Greenwade. None of the jurors profess to believe that the young man was innocent of the crime.

The letters mentioned are presumably the basis of Gov. Beckham's action in freeing Greenwade.

THE FATHER'S PROTEST. The following letter was received by Gov. Beckham from the father of the girl, protesting against the pardon, and is filed with the record:

Mt. Sterling, April 17, 1901.

Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Sir—We are informed and believe that there will be an effort made to induce you to pardon Thomas Greenwade, Jr., who was convicted at the present term of the Montgomery Circuit Court and sentenced to one year's imprisonment for seduction under the promise of marriage. From what we can see and learn, they are proceeding very quietly in the matter. The people of this county, and especially of this neighborhood, in which Greenwade resides, do enter a protest. The papers are now being prepared, but in case a petition for pardon should be filed earlier than we anticipate, would your honor be kind enough to notify us so the protest can be hurried up?

and held to be "a good fellow." But a learner to this rule might disqualify men for professorships of labiology. Woman could be, however, found in large numbers to fill the bill. The class of labiology would draw crowds of students especially if the professor were young, beautiful, and favored with charming lips; such as Robert Greene writes of:

Her lips are rose-overshadowed with dew. Or like the purple of Narcissus' flower. No frost their fair, no wind doth waste their power.

But by her breath her beauties do renew.

The number of women with beautiful lips is, in the opinion of mankind, very large; but Miss Kemble emphatically declares that perfect lips are few. She says:

It is simply a revelation. Either the lips are too thick or too thin; some looking like a square cut face—a mere porthole for food and an export hole for talk—while others appear weak and infantile.

And again Dame Nature has made the lips too severe, angular, contemptuous, bitter, hard or too mild, characteristic, insipid. And so through the entire lip catalog category.

I talked with many scientists and others whose favorite themes are physiognomy.

It seems that two fleshy folds surrounding the orifice of the mouth—or, in less technical terms, the lips—are inflexibly impressed with marks of character, and may be read with the same ease and interest as the latest book by one initiated into the mysteries of the lip language. These for instance are the infallible signs for youth to study if they would shun an unhappy alliance and find the road to conjugal bliss.

Miss Kemble is good enough to give some important signs to lovers. If the lips of your sweetheart border a large and generous mouth, the lady is warmhearted and affectionate, and as a wife would be gentle, loving, devoted and truthful. But if the largeness and generosity of the mouth be too pronounced, its possessor is set down as coarse in nature and undesirable as a mate. A small mouth with tightly drawn lips, indicates marked self-control, with occasional fits of ill temper, "not a bad combination," says Miss Kemble, "as occasional clouds often make sunshine all the brighter." Those lips which develop fullness in the center indicate refined love. Miss Kemble lets us no further for the moment into the secrets of labiology. She has directed attention to the science. Lovers have given close study to ladies' lips, but it remained for Miss Kemble to emphasize the scientific aspects of womanly lips, and open another avenue for woman's activities. Professors of labiology will now, no doubt, be heard of, and in some instances, at least, obtain a large clientele without reference to sex, age, or even previous conditions of servitude.—R.

PRIZE LOVE LETTER.

Milwaukee Girl Wins $10 for an "Ideal" Production of That Kind.

Miss Anne Evans, of this city, knows how to write a love letter. As a result of a competition she has received a $10 prize for having turned in the ideal love letter. It reads:

"My Dear Heart: My first love letter, what shall I say to you? Why, that tonight I am rich—rich with a woman's whole opulence, the joy of giving."

"All my childhood's gladness, all of a girl's tender, secret dreaming of the unfolding mystery of life, all of a woman's yearning potentialities for sacrifice—all these I coin into the new, shining gold of my love from mines in depths unguessed, unfathomed save by you, and given not in spendthrift recklessness, but with jealous care that every bit of its preciousness may come to you untouched."

"Yes, I'm jealous—not of your love for me, but of my love for you. Because, unspeakable dear as your love is to me, that is my life; my love for you. I think that must be God's gift to woman, and even that I give you. Good night."—New York Sun.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of Doctor.

"I am just up from a bad spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by J. H. Williams.

A good prescription for mankind. The 5-cent packet is enough for most occasions. The family bottle (50 cents) contains a supply for a year. All druggists sell them.

In Memory of Mrs. Sarah Haynes.

On the evening of the 20th of July, 1903, the death angel visited the community of Haynesville and claimed for its own, Mrs. Sarah Haynes, wife of J. H. Haynes. Mrs. Haynes had been sick for a long time, confined to her bed for many weeks, yet she bore her sufferings with the greatest patience and seemed at all times to be submissive to her Master's will and ready to answer His call at any moment.

She died, not in her bloom of womanhood, but had reached the age of eighty-one and past. She was a woman of high aspiration, although many privileges and acts of charity were denied her, she murmured not, and her talk and steps were always for good and for the betterment of humanity.

To know her was only to love her, just one week before she passed away she called her children and grandchildren around her bed, and when they assembled there, she said to them, "You are all here excepting two." These two being her oldest granddaughter and her husband. She then said, "I haven't long to stay in this world and I would love to see them one more time." These arrived later in the day. She then said, "You are all here now," and became perfectly satisfied. She knew every one until the very last.

In that home is a vacancy that can never be filled; around the fireside there is an empty chair, a chair that was filled by one who always greeted every one with a smile and loving words. Words are to feeble to express our sorrow by the death of this dear one. It is hard indeed for us to give up the thought that we have no grandmother here on earth. But there is a blessed thought left us that there is one who doeth all things well, and that grandma is only sleeping and shall sleep until the angel sounds the trumpet that time shall be no more, then with the angels and all blessed of God will be permitted to walk the golden streets of the New Jerusalem. Let us weep not, but look onward and upward, knowing that she is free from burning diseases and blighting poisons forevermore, and strive harder to live for Jesus so that when the great judgment hour shall dawn we will be permitted to sit at the right hand of God where sorrow and pain are no more.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in the country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney poisons in the blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away call by call.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Killing Mosquitoes by Music. How to get rid of the pestiferous mosquito is a question which is just now giving a good many people much serious concern. The latest plan, we believe, is to exterminate it with music, which is being tried, with more or less success, by an experimenter at Brookline, Mass. His theory is that a certain musical note paralyzes the pesta. Upon hearing it the insects plunge listlessly upon the instrument. The plan seems simple enough, and it is a wonder that no one ever thought of it before. Any person whose neighbors have a piano and a sedulous daughter who practices "one-two-three," or sings ragtime or "Jerusalem" does not need to be told of the balmy influence of music. If the performance of the "Trolley Car Gallop" on the piano or the passionate vocalizing of "Oh, Promise Me!" can exert the powerful effect which it shows upon the tough human organism, how much more nearly fatal it might prove to so fragile a creature a mosquito!

However, there are some rather serious objections to the Brookline method, and nervous persons may regard the remedy as worse than the disease. Human endurance is already taxed about to the limit by players and singers of the so-called popular airs, and it would be staggering to humanity, to say nothing of the insects, when the mosquito-killing musicians got fairly to work. The fear is entertained that this process would stimulate the composition of new music to bring in the fatal note. We have enough of the "tone that kills," already. On the whole, the Brookline plan should be discouraged. As annoying as is the mosquito pest, it is much to be preferred to the torture that would follow the general adoption of the proposed remedy.—EX.

Most of the latter-day Democratic issues are suffering from a chronic attack of death.

If the Democrat party in Kentucky can't afford a platform, why not use a spring-board.

The Democrats, it they would put their heads together and try, might agree on a platform consisting of one word, and that word be "Object."

When a man gets his mental facilities to working off just right, it is just as natural for him to be a Republican as it is for the dewdrops to infuse new life into a parched plant.

A PROMINENT Democrat recently remarked that a financial panic would insure Democratic success. Yes, and Democratic success would insure a financial panic. The rule will work both ways, you see.

Your Uncle Grover Cleveland has a new baby boy at his home. A delightful task has the ex-President of naming the boy. Wonder if he won't be named William Jennings Bryan Cleveland?

It is not well to look with favor upon Democracy when she wants office. She is sugar and spice and everything nice during the campaign,

but afterwards she sits like a serpent and stings like sitting down on knitting work.

If you are interested in selecting a competent man to fill the office of Circuit Judge and another to fill the Sheriff Callahan and his appointment to that position had been ratified by Judge Hargis. If he is of bad character, why did these self-same men choose him as a deputy sheriff? It must be that he did not have that bad character or he was selected to do dirty and illegal work, and if the latter be the accepted opinion, the logical and easy conclusion is that Judge

Hargis and Sheriff Callahan are just such officers as may be guilty of schemes to secure murder, arson and perjury. He was their chosen deputy, and in addition was selected by Judge Hargis to make a pretended search for the assassin.

BECKHAM'S PARDON.

The Democratic papers of the State assault on this innocent girl and when she resisted, was shot down in cold

He Will Make a Personal Canvass

of the State of Kentucky

This Fall.

Louisville, Aug. 11.—Col. Morris B.

Belknap has returned from his trip

East, greatly improved in health and announced that he will open his campaign as Republican nominee for Governor at Munfordsville the first week in September.

Col. Belknap will make a personal canvass of the state. He has been greatly encouraged lately. Everything indicates victory for the Republican ticket. Col. Belknap will prove a leader hard to down for he will receive the solid support of the Republican party and the votes of hundreds and thousands of disgruntled

Democrats all over the state as well as of thousands of men who want a good business administration.

Col. Belknap will be aided in his campaign by some of the best speakers and foremost politicians in the state and will certainly conduct one of the most active successful campaigns in the history of Kentucky.

TAFFY, KY.

August 12.—We are having some fine weather now. The recent rains have helped the crops wonderfully.

port a good time.

Mr. E. K. Moseley and Miss Minnie Russell were married at Pleasant

Hill church Sunday afternoon. Rev.

F. D. Baugh officiating. Quite a large crowd was present. We wish them a long, happy and successful life.

Mr. Sharp, who has been sick so long, is no better.

Miss Lena Miller will begin school

August 31, at Beech Valley.

Sunday School at this place is progressing nicely. We wish everyone would join us.

Messrs. Ewen Alfard and Jas.

Clements called at J. H. Miller's

Monday afternoon.

Mrs. F. D. Baugh and children

Gerdie Tichenor and Messrs. Herbert

PARK-CAMP

One of Ohio County's Most Popular Teachers Weds Henderson Belle.

Ceremony Took Place at Chautauqua Grounds Owensboro, Wednesday Evening at 8 P.M.

On Wednesday evening, at the Chautauqua grounds, at Owensboro, was consummated a pretty romance of courtship and love, in which one of Ohio county's favorite sons and one of Henderson county's most accomplished daughters, were the principal actors.

A life-long friendship gradually ripened into love, and on Wednesday Miss Lella M. Camp became the happy bride of Prof. William Park. Rev. T. J. Ratcliff, in a beautiful and impressive manner, performed the ceremony which started two lives out on a new and propitious journey.

Prof. Park was born and reared on a farm near Barrett's Ferry, and spent his boyhood days in performing the ordinary duties of farm life and attending the district school. Long before he attained his majority he found himself a teacher in the public schools. After teaching and attending school for several years he completed his education at Winchester College.

He now ranks as one of the first among the splendid corps of teachers in Ohio county.

Miss Camp is a belle of many and varied accomplishments. She was graduated from Cloverport High School with first honors in her class; afterwards having taught two years in that institution. She is now an acknowledged society leader in Henderson City, which place, has, for several years, been her home.

With her excellence of mind and elegance of manners, she becomes the fitting companion of the noble young man who has won her heart and hand.

May their pathway down life's rugged journey be crossed by only enough clouds to cause them to more fully enjoy the sunshine, is the wish of THE REPUBLICAN.

Correspondents Wanted.

We Don't Care Anything About the Cost!

We are going to have a clearance of summer stocks. Every dollar's worth must go and our sacrifice prices will make them move on the double quick. Fall Goods will soon be pressing summer goods hard. Every day will soon begin to bring new arrivals, which must take the place now occupied by the remainder of our summer stocks. If prices slashed to the very quick will vacate the tables, they shall be vacated. The cost or former price cuts no figure. Every article is of superior quality, but they are summer goods. So the buyer who wants to anticipate next year's wants and secure a bargain of the first water, had better speak quickly. Such snaps as these will not remain long on our counters. Here are some of our moving prices.

WOMEN'S WORK

To be Exhibited at the State Fair in Owensboro.

Prizes Amounting to $750 are Offered and There Will be Some Fine Displays.

True to the reputation which Kentuckians have long since established for gallantry towards their "women folks," the Executive Committee of the State Fair has certainly dealt most generously with them in awarding the Premium list in the Women's Department.

Not only are the premiums the largest offered by any State in the Union, ($750 having been allotted to this one department), but so wide is their scope and so broad their purpose to reach every class, that one may be well repaid by a careful study of the lists.

The practicable, sensible woman of our rural or mountain sections from whose sturdy looms come the beautiful woven counterpanes and artistic rag carpets whose merits are being more and more appreciated; the deft fingered art workers of our cities with their filmy laces and exquisite embroideries, are all remembered. In whatever direction one's talent may lie, she will find in this catalogue an incentive to exhibit her best work.

Not alone in needle work, either for that road which is said to lead most directly to a man's heart, the culinary highway is quite as generously provided for. Breads, Cakes, Preserves, Jellies, pickles, all are there, with abundant scope for the display of one's skill in many directions.

Another striking feature to which attention should be called, is the Sweepstakes Premium offered as an inducement to exhibit as many different articles in each class as one may be able. To the one who receives the largest number of premiums in any class, special premiums of $10 are awarded, making it worth one's while to enter as great a variety as possible.

Nor are the children forgotten, for there is a special list for them, where they may exhibit their best dressed dolls, their raffia work, scolloping, or any other handicraft in which they may excel.

To any one who may feel interested, the Secretary of the Association, Mr. L. B. Shropshire, Board of Trade Building, Louisville, Ky., will gladly mail catalogues upon application, and it is earnestly hoped that the women of our State may find both pleasure and profit in making their department a success.

Assassin Kills His Own Son.
Greenville, Tex., Aug. 10.—A double tragedy was enacted east of here which has robbed a home of a son and father.

J. M. Robertson, a wealthy farmer, for many years has harbored a grudge against his neighbor, Charles Henderson. Last night Robertson fired his pistol at Henderson's house, not knowing that his own son was in the house playing with Henderson's boy. Robertson did not know that one of his bullets had killed his own offspring until the neighbor brought the corpse to Robertson's door. Henderson, after depositing the burden, shot Robertson dead. Henderson is under bond.

Two valuable trotting horses were bled to death in a fire which threatened for a time to destroy the stables of the Empire City trotting track.

An Effectual Quietus.
He—Why, we haven't even to extol the virtues of men to prove the inferiority of women. The very tailings of womanhood prove the point. No woman, for example, has a sense of humor.

She—She hasn't? Then why is it that all bits of bright repartee are called Salutes?—New York Times.

Cured Paralysis.
W. S. Bailey, P. O. Box 1, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for sores, frost bites, and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle at J. H. Williams.

Wants a Wife.
Ladies, if you wish a good, kind husband, write to me. I am a man 40 years old, 5 feet, 10 inches. A widower by death. I am a farmer, very industrious, no bad habits. I can give good reference. I wish a lady from 35 to 45 years old. Address, Box, No. 67, Knightstown, Ind.

The Magic Egg.
Take some water and dissolve in it as much common salt as it will take up. With this brine, half fill a tall glass; then fill up the remaining space with plain water, pouring it carefully down the side of the glass from a spoon to break it still. Put an egg into another glass of common water. It will sink to the bottom, but if it is put into the glass containing the brine it will sink through the plain water only and float upon that portion which is saturated with salt.

SUPT. M'CHESNEY "HOGGED THE POT" IN SALARIES

How Hardworking Democrats Were Kept out of a Good Clerkship in the Bureau of Public Instruction.

SOME NICE GRAFTS IN THE COMMONWEALTH'S FUNDS

Unauthorized Allowances for Extra Clerks in the Office While Canvassing for the Nomination for Secretary of State.

BREEZY DEMOCRATIC GOSSIP RIFE AT FRANKFORT.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 10.—When the Hon. Harry V. McChesney was inducted into office as State Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1900 it was under the provisions of a statute defining his duties and designating his salary at $2,500 per annum.

The same statute also provided for the employment of three clerks, designated as chief clerk, first clerk and second clerk. The salary of the chief clerk is fixed at $1,500, that of the first clerk $1,000, and the second clerk at $850 yearly. With an eye strictly to business Mr. McChesney appointed his wife to the position of first clerk in the office at a salary of $1,000. Ben Watt, late candidate before the recent primary for the nomination to succeed his chief, was given the berth of chief clerk at $1,500, while Joe O. Rutter was made second clerk at $850. At the time of Mrs. McChesney's appointment, no little disappointment was expressed in the ranks of the army of "ple hunters" at the nepotism exhibited in the selection.

It was freely claimed that the appointment should have gone to some "good Democratic voter" from within the rank and file of the party, whose untainted efforts for party success at the polls demanded just recognition. Evidently Superintendent McChesney entertained different views and it is possible that at that time he entertained no ambition to be Secretary of State, the position he is now seeking at the hands of the Democratic voters.

NOT EVEN THE STORK INTERRUPTS GRAFT.

Be that as it may, Mrs. McChesney was installed as first clerk, and, according to the official record "School Funding account, contingent expenses," on file in the office of the Auditor of State, she has not failed to draw the monthly stipend of $83.33 from June, 1900, to July, 1903, in sickness and in health—even during the months of January and February, 1902, at which time the stork visited the McChesney home and crowned it with happiness. The salary of $83.33 was paid with uncaring regularity on the presentation of Superintendent McChesney's warrant for the same.

It is alleged by attaches and officials about the State House that, though Mrs. McChesney was absent a considerable portion of the time from the office, yet there is no reduction in the salary roll for such absences.

The following is a correct sample copy of the monthly salary roll for the Superintendent's office as on file in the Auditor's office, which, beginning with June, 1900, continues with unvarying regularity to July, 1903:

H. V. McChesney, S. P. I.	$208.33
Ben H. V. McChesney	83.33
Ben Watt	125.00
J. O. Rutter	70.83

Total $446.49

UNAUTHORIZED INCREASE OF EXPENSE

It was possible some time early in 1902 that Superintendent McChesney decided to succeed the Hon. John C. Breckinridge Hill as Secretary of State, and forthwith began to plan his campaign. To make a successful canvass for such an office it is generally necessary to visit each county in the State, 119 in number, for the purpose of meeting the constituency. McChesney started on his campaign tour, leaving his office in charge of Clerks Watts and Rutter, and at the same time, or later possibly, an additional increase in the salary list is shown by the record. Doubtless the business of the office needed attention, which Mr. McChesney, by reason of his canvass for a political office, was unable to render, as the pay roll of August 2, 1902, shows three additional names not on the regular roll. The names and amount are:

Alma Burge	$243.19
Amos Griffith	286.16
E. K. Bell	429.16

January 21, 1903, the name of W. W. Wilson was added to the monthly salary roll for $35, which amount was drawn on that date, also February 28, March 31, April 30, May 30 and June 30.

The statute very plainly and explicitly provides for the employment of only three clerks or assistants, and provides the amount of salary each shall receive. Yet here are found additional clerks, though it is not stated by whose authority employed. It is taken for granted, however, Mr. Mc-

Chesney is responsible for the entire matter.

CANVASS AT EXPENSE OF STATE.

During his canvass for the nomination of Secretary of State, Superintendent McChesney continued to draw his salary and railroad and traveling expenses, as provided for the Superintendent of Public Instruction while inspecting the schools of the State, which Mr. McChesney was assiduously engaged in visiting while booming his candidacy for another office. The records show that Mr. and Mrs. McChesney commenced drawing the sum of $243.19 and $83.33, respectively, June, 1900, and have continued to draw such amounts monthly to the present time, amounting to $11,754.72.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Paxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. Age at J. H. Williams.

Mob Attacks Jail.

Hillsboro, O., Aug. 8.—A mob broke into the jail this morning about two o'clock to lynch Maynard Hudson, a negro, charged with attempt to assault a twelve-year-old white girl Thursday night, but failed to find the prisoner. It developed that the Sheriff had secretly removed Hudson and taken him to the Ross county jail at Chillicothe for safe keeping.

Things Have Changed.

Things have "changed" in the past quarter of a century, says the editor of the Waynesburg Messenger. Three score years ago the average boy would go out on Sunday, climb a tree and partake of a few quarts of mulberries, and top out with a pocketful of green apples and salt. The next morning his brother diagnosed his trouble as "worms," and he was made to swallow half a bottle of Ery's vermifuge, a quarter of a pound of epsom's salts, and was turned loose in the cow pasture until supper time, when he would come in for a square meal, all right. Now if a boy complains of having a "stitch" in his side, he has "appendicitis," and is hustled off to a hospital, starved within an inch of his life, half a dozen surgeons each take a whack at him with pearl-handled knives, and he is turned over to his friends or undertaker.—Ex.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaint, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use of these diseases. For sale by J. H. Williams.

Haunted by Vision.

St. Mary's, W. Va., Aug. 8.—Horrid at having had to assist in the execution of a negro, W. O. Brown has made several attempts at suicide. Last winter he was appointed guard in the State penitentiary at Moundsville, and soon afterward was called upon to assist in the hanging of a negro. It is said that he pulled the rope and from that moment he has never been himself.

Brown resigned his position and returned home to his farm, but has been a victim of hallucinations. During the night he is haunted by visions of the negro swinging at the end of a rope. He tried to kill himself several weeks ago by means of laudanum. Thursday night he made another attempt, placing the muzzle of a shotgun against his left breast. As he pulled the trigger, however, the gun swerved a little and a bad flesh wound was the only result.

Arrangements have been made permitting those that go with the Headquarters train, to spend one day in Denver, one day in Colorado Springs, one day in Salt Lake City, and the schedule is so prepared as to permit a daylight ride through the Rocky Mountains. When Denver is reached the "Seelig Denver" car will take the party through all of the principal streets and in sight of all points of interest in this wonderful city. After supper the summer gardens, parks and other places of high-class amusements can be visited, and sleepers will be located convenient to the depot, where they can be occupied for the night.

The day and evening at Colorado Springs can be spent in sight-seeing. The principal points of interest at this place, among which are Pike's Peak, Manitou, Garden Caverns, Garden of the Gods, Rainbow Falls, Cave of the Winds, Ute Pass and the "Cog Road," amply repay those taking the trip and are a revelation to those who have only read of these natural wonders. They must be seen to realize their wonderful beauty and magnitude.
